Expectancy
Transformation

True devotion consists in giving ourselves and all we have over to the blessed Virgin Mary, that she may dispose of us and our valuables (especially the spiritual goods of our soul) according to her good pleasure – for she who bore Wisdom in her womb knows well the designs of God's Providence.

Hence, true devotion to Mary is identical with perfect conformity of the soul to God's will.

St. Louis De Montfort

Peace & Blessings in the “Year of Faith” 2013,

It is with great love and longing that we issue this, perhaps, last Newsletter. After experiencing an intensified sense in our spirits that the great-prophesied events, which will bring mankind into the Era of Peace, are about to take place, this episode and several updates to the site, came to fruition.

Expectancy and Transformation in God is the heart of these following pages. How Our Lady lives (and Her children can) in Expectancy, and in fact the Holy Spirit is aflame within us when we do. How it was Her consolation, as it kept Her spirit at Peace and allowed Her one foot on Earth and one in Heaven our true Homeland, which we are all about to see in Jesus ...and His Love within us will warm us at His Divine Manifestation.

God the Father tells of the Great Transformation about to take place. A wonderful, exciting and consoling perspective of the period of transition into the New Era. He gives His consecrated ones a way we can help Him renew and establish His kingdom on earth just by offering Him all we feel up to Him for Transformation. Nothing could be more simple. And we'll discuss many of the amazing benefits of this new way of life in the Father (in Father through Mary is assumed). He also tells us how His Presence IN us will allow us to BE the Noah's Ark of this time which will carry us sheltered and safe through everything.

And our beloved Founder, Br. Mariamartin de la Cruz, will share his understandings through experience, of the complexities of where many souls are at right now so we can see with the eyes of our soul and be merciful and NOT quick to judge or reject, so that all may be at Peace and ready for the Day of the Lord.

His Returning Presence to His friends is a wonderful and exceedingly Great thing!

His Returning Presence to sinners is a Fire of consuming Love!

His Returning Presence to Creation will renew the world and transform it into a blissful paradise and loving hearts will enjoy a well deserved and greatly needed “Time of Refreshment”³.

Come and meet your Holy Eternal Father—

He has waited for YOU for so long!

Delay His consoling and healing embrace no more!

³ Acts 3:20

Expectancy:

“Waiting In Hope”

February 22, 1999:

...Let these words penetrate your soul: Expectancy in the Lord! What does this mean, child?

That we expect good things, Your will for us, in all things?

Notice the word “expectancy.” It is a state of waiting in hope. Remember that, Barbara. Waiting in hope. And what do you “hope” for?

I hope that I am with You always, Father. That You are in me and I am in You. Then I am at home; I am at peace.

You have answered well, little rose of My heart. This life which I granted you was never intended as the goal you would seek... (your crosses) ... will strengthen you for the ultimate sacrifice which each child must make—the complete and total surrender of self to Me, their one true God and Father—and then they will be given back so much more—they will be given back the promise—the promise of a transformed self in God. ...Soon, I will come to you and all My children in a new way. This, too, is as I have promised. Now go and rest in My peace. ...

The artist who portrayed this image of the young Virgin Mary on the front cover certainly captured the Innocence and Purity and ardent devotion of the Immaculate Spirit of Our Mother and Queen. She longed for God from the moment of Her conception and cultivated within Herself this passion for consoling Him that was so great that it consumed Her as a fire. She was obsessed with the Cause of God because Her Immaculate soul was as a window to His true Image... and She was enamored with Him.

As a young child, She did not know She had an intimacy with and knowledge of God that others did not have and She did not bother to be concerned about it. The modesty that came with Her inborn and immaculate innocence prevented Her from comparing Herself to others and this protected Her from all thoughts of exaltation. All She knew was that God was consumed with love for Her... and when one really knows that and is fully open to God's intimate and personal love for them, one is blissfully content. And, then, one longs to give love in return and generously.

We experience this in a limited way among creatures... often today for example, in our treasured pet companions as it is easy to see a kind of innocence and affection and a kind of desire in them to console us. And since Mary had a great capacity to give... Her prayers were limitless, as was Her longing. And God responded. One of the secrets that He revealed to Her, that was a consolation for both God and little Mary, was that His longing to send the Messiah and be reunited with His children was great and was im- minent. Mary knew this then... and She knows it now. Her expectancy was great then and it is great now. And She reveals it and has been preparing Her children since Her first announcements of Her Son's Return at LaSalette. This wonderful secret that She had only for Herself then at Nazareth, as the world was in a dark, deep and deadly sleep... this great thing, this never before and unimaginable act of God's was about to take place. An intersection between Heaven and Earth... through the little person of Mary... we now share with Her... clothed in Her virtues... to be favored to be amongst those who know and we rejoice.

November 3, 1997,

Now go in peace today and know that I am with you. BE PREPARED FOR THIS COMING, little one. Be prepared. IT HAS BEGUN. THE TIME OF ALL TIMES. THE TIME ORDAINED BY ME. MY SEPARATION FROM MY CHILDREN HAS COME TO A CONCLUSION. MY KINGDOM IS AT HAND. SOON YOU WILL SEE MY SON COMING IN GLORY TO USHER IN THE REIGN OF MY KINGDOM. One Kingdom being subsumed into the other. Flesh and Spirit—one to the other. Transformation. Transformation, child. Speak My Name.

FATHER.

There are spiritual seasons as well. We presently find ourselves in a long Winter, the Sunset before the Sunrise. Pope John Paul 2 the Great, prophesied a New Springtime that was to come upon the Church that, prior to the year 2000, was on our lips with great enthusiasm. In fact, so many people became convicted that the Jubilee would witness God's Divine Intervention... overthrowing all darkness and ushering in the Era of Peace and Unity among Christians. Over ten years later, many have lost their enthusiasm... as the current of the world and it's God-less entity has grown ever thicker and all encompassing. It seems ages ago now rather than just over 10 years.

But if you have persevered to see with the eyes of the soul, you will, like Mary, see things quite differently. God's timing is not our timing and we can not set a time for Him. Also, that His ways are not our ways and that since He always keeps His Promises, Mary's Immaculate Heart will Triumph and usher in an Era of Peace. And God has promised His messengers, as He does Barbara below, and some others who are even in their 70's, it will occur in their lifetime, and so ours as well. Some are beginning to say it is very, very soon.

TRANSFORMING

December 16, 1996,

Come home, little ones. Bring your "burdens" with you for transformation. For only those who experience the trials and misfortunes can offer it and transform it. This can be done only through Me. There is no time left for humans to re-create the world—even as My instruments. Your job, your role, is to experience and offer, experience and offer.

ABSORB THE PAIN AND OFFER IT TO ME. IN THIS WAY IT WILL BE LIFTED UP AND IMMERSSED IN MY LOVE AND MERCY - TO BE CHANGED FOREVER.

SOON ALL WILL BE TRANSFORMED. Sooner than you think. What joy that within your lifetime the change will take place. Be ready. Be vigilant. I come swiftly to bring Mine back home to Me. This is the transformation—when I come to make My home and all is transformed. ... All things are possible in the Lord.

It is a great consolation that we have a Mother that is perpetually obtaining Divine assistance and gifts for us and craftily weaving them into our receptivity, in secret, with no effort on our parts whatsoever without asking for anything in return but that we simply just love our souls. And leading us to the Source of that Love; our One True Triune God: Creator and Father, Saviour and Brother and Sanctifier and Spirit Paraclete.

As Mary wanted that all of God's children would love Him totally and the Love She was full of knew that It would not deceive Her that "with God, and when it comes to Love-- all things are possible through Love", She had this hope in the goodness and limitless of Her God, Her Love... which kept Her Spirit alive, expectant and thriving, fanning the flame of the fire of charity that God had within Her. And as She understood more and more the painful consequences of the original sin, rather than despair or become bitter, She fled from the shadows and rushed forward, ever more toward the Light, thrusting Her soul into total immersion. And we, who feel incapable to see anymore the evil around us and often we feel it is in us, can imitate Her. She instinctively knew to do this and She can repair our instincts and do this in us now when we ask Her to and immerse ourselves in Her Immaculate Heart and Father's Divine Paternal Heart. Transformation allows that for us. And over time, when one makes a habit to only "eat of the Tree of Life" rather than looking at "the knowledge of Good and Evil" another practice Father encourages, our focus becomes God's Light and Life and we become healed of the harm from sin. I am certain that God prefers that we remain simple, confess our sins as the Holy Spirit convicts us and acknowledge and feel our wounds in the safety of His Grace and forgive and surrender. And that's it where suffering is concerned. Being a vessel of transformation allows for a simplicity of soul in that all other suffering is to be offered up to His authority and responsibility.

One becomes free of the "burden" of it. One is allowed to be a child in His arms. He encourages us to share and talk about our sufferings with Him but not "wallow" in it but rather let it go and be freed. Over time, even the most abused person grows in moral and spiritual maturity.... And with less and less effort and much consolation. They have a True Parent, at last, Who loves them the way they need to be loved (a Mother and a Father: our Creator, as God is all these things and more... And all within the privacy and convenience of their own hearts.

Not only Good for Us but Good for the Environment (I think I got that off of a milk carton)

Transformation is a term God the Father speaks of frequently to Barbara in the Seeing Books. And when we do so, we become little transformers... helping to change the lives of those who can no longer change (and when Love fills and increases in us, Love heals the earth as well). It's an amazing thing! Are you discouraged because no one seems to care about spirituality or God? Now Father gives us something anyone who still has a heart that feels and a will to will to give can do. We open our Hearts to God, allow ourselves to feel whatever we are feeling, absorb it, offer it as a gift to Father and surrender it, give it away, and He takes that gift which is sacred to Him as it came from the very heart of His child, and He "transforms" it into something new and good. And we too are transformed. By not allowing these things we feel to get stuck in us or poison us and by not holding onto it for ourselves, we become transformed and the flow of God's love travels through us. This recreates us and the world through us.

Father tells us that Mary prepares us for the Father. Also that St. Raphael heals us so He can enter. And how our allowing His Love to dwell in us actually makes us little Tabernacles and it is God's Presence on Earth, in us, that will not only be preserved through the Tribulation into the New Era (Noah's Ark), but is the Way God's Kingdom will be established on Earth... through His children. Also, the greater God's Light, Love and Presence is in us the greater will be our experience of Peace and not conflict at the Visitation or Illumination.

The God the Father Consecration Medal illustrates Transformation as well. Jesus, is the bridge that links us to the Father symbolized in the Cross, and at the base, it isn't the cross that touches the earth, but rather the "M". Mary. A visual first given to us on the now famous apparition of Mary to St. Catherine Laboure: the Miraculous Medal. The large M with the Cross-beam going through it. So, in other words, Jesus does not bridge earth and souls to the Father directly Himself, but rather, the earth is “transformed” through the M, through Mary, by the Cross and Redemptive act of Our Lord, God and Man. But God IS the Transformer, not us.

Sensitivity

Barbara tells us that particularly souls who are more sensitive are bigger “conduits” or vessels of transformation. So, sensitivity is a very, very good thing in God’s eyes. The devil abhors it and is in fear of it...

Jesus tells us in the Poem of the Man God (Maria Valtorta’s cause for canonization has been accepted by the Church but the Poem is also endorsed by Our Lady of Medjugorje, St. Padre Pio and Blessed Mother Teresa did carry one with her when traveling (see from the founder at sdbv.org for link)) that the more perfect a soul is, the more sensitive. And that Mary had a perfect sensitivity. Therefore, She suffered acutely at every contrast with Love that She experienced. We can well assume that God made Her the most “needy” soul to ever exist, because, as She was Immaculate, in the exile of the world, She needed God more than any other creature who has and will ever exist. But God could do that, entrust Her into the earth, because He would sustain Her, but Her will was required for this full transfer. Can you imagine? Her dependency was not negotiable or able to relax... it was necessary for Her to Live.

Father told Barbara: “The day comes soon when you can no longer LIVE without Me.” Will all of God’s children soon be given this privilege? If so, it means that we are going to be sanctified and given the graces to live this way... a blissful total lasting life in Father! It is foretold that in this New Era, souls will experience the indwelling Trinity within them and even a “mystical transubstantiation” where Jesus will make them little Himself.

Transformation grows us into habitual Dependency on God.

And without our even realizing it. And this increases our true freedom of spirit to live on the Tree of Life and avoid the poisonous fruit of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil- a thing that will be left behind to this soon quickly forgotten present age. Focusing on God and not looking at our sufferings but surrendering them, puts us into a safe atmosphere. And the more we do it, the more we widen as vessels and the more God increases His Presence in us. Our capacity for God increases.

Transformation Attaches us to the Tree of Life and Sanctifies us.

The Tree of Life is what allows us to be free and not slaves to our passions. And it is absolutely necessary for those broken and wounded by sin. The fruits of the Tree of Life, once understood and sought, are like “superfoods” for the soul and it quickly recovers and thrives. Christianity today has lost the True Faith in that, we believe that only a religion that frees one from all suffering can be one where Love is. Transformation is the proper means of utilizing suffering. Because only in heaven will suffering truly end, God has made it necessary for our growth and sanctification. It unites us to Him mystically... but only when we surrender it either through forgiveness or offering. And possessing God and being little and hidden in Mary and ultimately Jesus and the Father, allows us to be safe-- immersed and sheltered in Them, so they can absorb the impact and be our strength so that we can cling to Their aid to support our weakness and keep us free from harmful things. It is that simple. The other stuff that pressures us to run from suffering is just weighted illusions, bullying etc.. and forgiveness, surrender and simplicity will give our souls wings to fly to God, whereas running only hastens the pursuer after it’s prey. Just watch the bad fruits of control, ... a cold heart and proud spirit, particularly in women, who God says in the Poem, that they were made only for Love.

There is so much more that could be said about transformation and it’s fruits. If you would like to read more, do a search with this keyword in your Seeing PDF book or the free Reference Journal at sdbv.org. Consecration to Mary purifies and prepares us for union with the Father through Jesus-- all possible by Love and in the Spirit. So, once you arrive at Consecration... You are Home. And even souls who suffer disordered passions can do this, in fact, Father chose Barbara Rose, an American Grandma, just because of this! He pities and therefore is endeared the most by the souls with the greater needs. That’s our God!

...write, I shall spread Peace and Love in the lands of your dead; I mean to spread My Peace and My Love all around and in all the nations Without-Love; I mean to overthrow all Injustice, and this dead era will be resurrected and shall follow Me into the New Earth I am preparing for her and under New Heavens she will glorify Me and praise Me all day and all night long; have you not yet understood how My Holy Spirit of Grace is preparing you, Vineyard after Vineyard, spreading Them gently and with so much love in every nation?...” (September 20, 1989 tlig)

The Luminous Mysteries & the The Era of Peace...

(Some of these parallels given by the Lord to Vassula (tlig))

The

Pope John Paul 2, not only foresaw the Era of Peace, as was evident in many of his teachings, but did He Himself experience the graces of it spiritually? After all, the Immaculate Heart of Mary did carry us safely into the New Millennium and ushered in the beginning stages of the Triumph of Her Immaculate Heart through Her son, John Paul II, Sr. Lucia of Fatima and many, many more of Her children and we now live awaiting it's final culmination.

Luminous Mysteries

So, it is no wonder that this Pope gave us these Luminous Mysteries. The word that also comes to mind is "Illumination". A term referred to as the Miniature Judgment to occur which will "illuminate" all mankind as he will experience a direct encounter with God and His great Mercy so His children may see the Light of God; a thing we have been deprived of. It is said that when things get to a critical point, God will Pierce the world with His Light & deliver us from our present darkness and establish His Spiritual or Eucharistic Kingdom on Earth... The Following shows parallels said to be proper to this Reign.

The Baptism of Our Lord at the Jordan: The Baptism of the Holy Spirit in a Second or New Pentecost.

Not only did the Pope speak a lot on this, but other prophets tell of a powerful anointing of the Holy Spirit to recreate the world anew in a spiritual renewal (which will unite all mankind under one shepherd and one fold as referred to in the Book of Rev.).

The Wedding at Cana: The Wedding Feast of the Lamb.

*"And he said to me: Write: Blessed are they that are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb...." Rev 19:9
An event that Jesus explains to us (TLIG) that will happen through an outpouring of the Holy Spirit.*

The Proclamation of the Kingdom: The New Evangelism & New Springtime for the Church

Pope John Paul II and various mystics have often foretold of a final and unparalleled flourishing of the Church where the Gospels will be preached to all ends of the earth in a New Springtime. \(More info on related topic.\)

The Transfiguration: The Transformation

The World and Mankind is about to experience a Divine Transformation which will renew all things so man will have an Era of Peace until Jesus' Final Return.

The Priesthood and the Eucharist: The Eucharistic Reign of Jesus

*As God had originally intended all of His children to be Priest & Prophet, proper to their Royal Lineage. The New Era will be a fulfillment of what God had always intended for mankind. The New Era that follows the Illumination experience, has also been foretold as being a Eucharistic Reign of Jesus, where He will not roam the earth in the Flesh, but rather, spiritually, through His Presence in the Holy Eucharist and WITHIN His children in a Mystical Transubstantiation. The Triumph of God's Kingdom in the Millenium and the End Times, Fr. Iannucci

SUFFERING OFFERING AND TRANSFORMATION

This past year has been a time of increased suffering for me. My physical health has not been good. I have been sick more than I have not been sick.

What I know now through experience is that the one thing most useful to God now in these times is suffering. Our Father wants to transform the world, all men, women and children and to do this He desires for all of us to become transformers, conduits if you will, of His presence and grace. Therefore the more we have to give to Him, the more He can transform. I am not saying good works are no longer necessary or useful, charity is always good and fruitful and a sign of God's presence. I am saying that in these times it is very much like the Egyptians telling the Hebrews to build bricks without straw.

THE PROBLEM OF SUFFERING

Most people I have ever known have had a problem with suffering. Most of them were abused and/or had terrible parents. They derived false messages and erroneous meanings from it all: of severity, judgment, condemnation and punishment; ultimately feeling and believing they were not loved, accepted or believed in. And since our parents are our first God figures, transferring their parent issues is the most natural thing in the world. It is no wonder they have an issue with suffering, none of their life experiences taught them the Christian understanding of it. I am certain whoever reads this has had a friend or loved one who has left the faith and not understood why or what the person's struggle was and some of this article deals with that.

People are so hurt and angry and without the intimate relationship with God necessary to process their life experiences well that they mistake charity for malice and visa versa. If a soul is not united to God and with a high degree of union, and has an open heart and good will, they will most often trust their feelings in trying to discern others and other's motives toward themselves. And since they often project their own issues onto others and replay the messages they received from their hurts, they often misread others intentions in their interactions with them. And so they trust more the person who is false but affective, smiling when they are angry or even have hatred or malice in their hearts, instead of the person who really loves them and wills their good but may try to correct their errors or give them advice that leads them to God rather than simply agree with them when they know they are wrong so as to not risk offense. What I am saying is that people are very hard to reach and if you do reach them it doesn't take much for them to forget. All the adversary has to do is push the right buttons and send the false messages they are prone to believing due to their wounds, making them feel fresh as if they just happened for the first time and push them into trauma/survival mode and their old coping skills come to the forefront and all you've done for them is long forgotten as if it never happened. But they can still be reached because our suffering being offered to our Father for the transformation can obtain their transformation. Most of these people have good hearts and good wills and our Father knows how to reach them and the more conduits we have on earth the more people will be transformed. Our suffering never has to be in vain; let us offer it to our Father to transform all His children and all of creation to its original innocence and beauty.

ANGER AT...

People have turned their anger toward God; they have lost all perspective because they feel the need to defend their feelings, hurt as they are that God has allowed them to suffer. Our Father says that He only allows pain for growth, but people are tired of growth, they want to be a finished product, they have no more patience for lessons and purification and healing, they want to be done with it. People en masse are rejecting suffering and as a consequence they are rejecting God who they blame for their suffering. Why? Mostly because of the loss of control they feel in trying to live for God; they feel they need to control their lives in order to not suffer, they believe they can control whether they suffer or not if they just do it well enough, and since God does not prevent all suffering or at least not the sufferings they believe they can not endure, they then reject Him.

FALSE MESSAGES FROM SUFFERING

Since the fall, there has been suffering, and anyone who believes they can control whether or not they suffer is delusional. Life has painful experiences but if we learn to see with the eyes of our soul we can understand our life experiences correctly and not receive false messages from them. Like when a couple gets divorced and the children somehow blame themselves and feel abandoned. It is not their fault and they are not abandoned but they feel as if it is true. These false messages we receive from life experiences can be reversed and we can come to learn how to receive them correctly by seeing with the eyes of our souls instead of allowing our feelings to teach us truth.

PURPOSE OF AFFECTIVITY

Our feelings have a purpose, a necessary purpose; to tell us how we are experiencing the here and now, and so to repress these feelings would be to take away our starting point of understanding our experiences, the very foundation of learning about ourselves. But they are not the end all be all of our understanding and to treat them as such is to trivialize our intellect and reasoning and give them a place that disorders our ability to function as a human being, putting us on par with animals who can but follow instincts based on passions without the ability to choose freely despite our emotional state. I have always maintained that repressing our emotions and feelings in order to try to do the right thing is actually the wrong way to do the right thing and is harmful. Instead of being fruitful and good, repressing our feelings allows the repressed emotions to rule our choices; it does the opposite of what we want to do. Also, if we allow our emotions to rule our reason by choice, that amounts to the same thing in the long run because it is our emotions making the choices for us. An authentic choice is made only when we use our emotions as a starting point and then allow our reason and above all our faith to make sense out of what we feel and decide by what we believe to be the right choice.

Emotions are the first things to tell us how we are experiencing something. God made us so that our feelings can bring us into an experience of love and self-knowledge. We have hearts, hearts that can get hurt and hearts that can be nurtured. Father says that generations of sin have caused disordered passions in us. Instincts that are bent inwards towards self destruction. He is going to send us the Holy Spirit soon to “break through this” as He says, but until then, if we do not acknowledge how we feel about an experience, we can never bring it to God’s Light, Truth and Mercy. This means we will remain as though we are incapable of actually making choices. No longer free, we will be as robots or programmed machines, soulless... our souls will no longer be the animating force within us as they will be detached from our reason. If a human is dis-integrated, he/she can not function properly and will shrivel and die as it is Love alone that sustains all life. So, we must acknowledge our feelings, for Father says that when we find our selves we find Him, and then bring them to His Light, Truth and Mercy and then make a free and good choice out of Love. St. Paul tells us that if we do anything without Love, it has no value before God.

We do not take these words seriously enough... literally, we will be judged only, and he means only, on how much we loved. The rest is straw before God... and if sin, a debt to be paid. If we accepted that, many souls would cease to do anything but grow in self- knowledge and to grow in Love. The Illumination soon to come will correct everyone about this, piercing through the illusion of what we have traded in for reality in this world. A shock for most, but many will come to freedom and life by choosing Love again.

But back to sufferings. It is important we not only realize that God is primarily making good use of our feelings that He needs us to give Him so that He can transform us and the world, but that we understand the different ways we suffer.

CONSEQUENCE OF SIN

I am not talking here about the suffering that we cause ourselves like bad choices that have bad consequences simply because they are bad choices. These sufferings can be alleviated by simply making the right and good choices and not making the wrong and bad ones. I am talking about the natural consequences of a fallen world and fallen nature and sin in the world. Make no mistake, it is sin that causes suffering, whether it is personal sin or the original sin or the sins of others against us, it is always sin. And so we can never be free of suffering until there is no sin in the world and that is why it is delusional to think we can simply be free of suffering by controlling our lives and being free of every influence including God, save our own feelings.

THE PRESSURES OF FALSE MESSAGES

There is a specific type of suffering that is always present to those who suffer from it and it comes from the self, since it is a projection of the pressure felt to be perfect or to be something we don't feel we are inside; a projection onto God that He, or the religion we are practicing and therefore He behind the religion we are practicing, is causing the pressure and is therefore severe and that He therefore is not to be trusted because that is obviously not love. And this is why so many people today are leaving their religion and ultimately God. They feel they are protecting themselves from being forced to be what others expect them to be. But it is they themselves that have put the pressure on themselves by projecting what they feel onto God Himself and His church. They have turned His commandments from, "keep away from what is harmful to you because it is harmful to you and I love you", to "don't do this or that or else you are a bad boy or girl and will be punished with silence and abandonment and hell because there is no forgiveness or redemption!"

THE NEED FOR FREE WILL

Our Father is not the author of our suffering, neither is our Savior, nor is our Advocate. God did not cause man to sin, and He does not do so now, and since sin is the cause of suffering blaming Him is just simply unjust. I have heard so many people say things like: well, He didn't stop my abuse so He must have wanted it since He could have stopped it if He wanted to. Okay. God is all powerful, so in the absolute sense He could have stopped it... except for the fact that He gave man free will. It is the same free will that allows us to say yes to good that allows us to say yes to evil, therefore if we were not allowed to do bad we would neither be allowed to do good, if we were not allowed to hate, we would not be allowed to love; we would simply be puppets and not culpable for our evil deeds nor meritorious for our good ones. If you have ever had a child run up to you and with a big smile hug you and say I love you, then you understand readily why God gave man free will. When an act of love comes freely from a person's own heart without prompting of any kind you know it is real and nothing feels better to the human heart. How would you feel if the only love you received always felt obligatory? Like you never really knew if you were loved, right? So how important do you think it is that God gave us free will then? We can and do choose whether to open our hearts and whether or not to open our hearts to love. And if that is how it should be then how can we say God should have prevented my abuse since that amounts to saying, God should have prevented my ability to love and do good! Love is good and sin is evil so let us believe the truth about it and allow this truth to govern how we live our lives.

PROVIDENTIAL LOVE

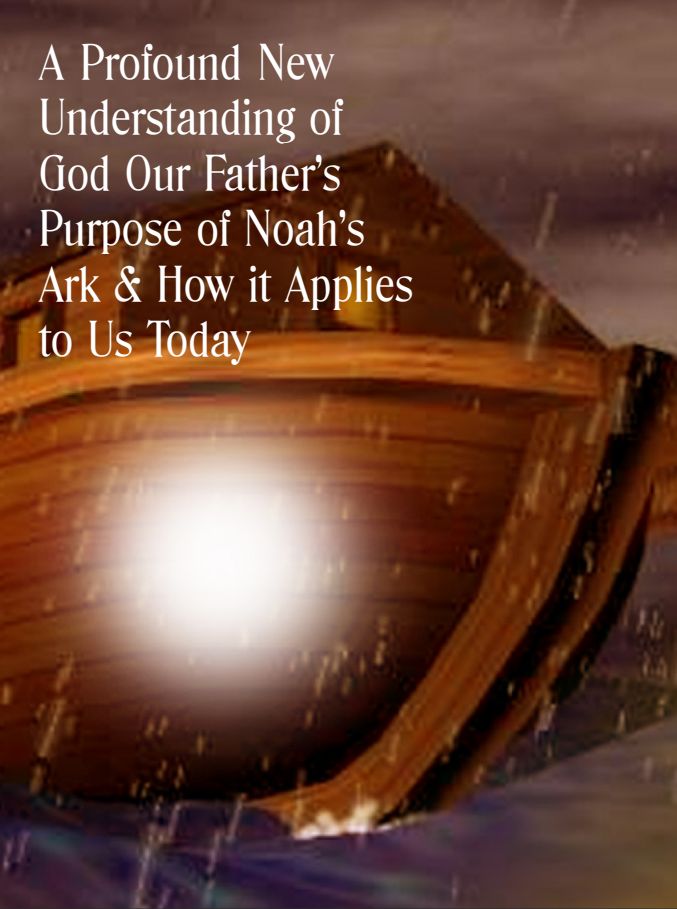

“Out of good comes good, and out of evil comes good.” Our Father tells Barbara Centilli this in Seeing with the Eyes of the Soul. And it means that God, being God, and deciding not to overpower our free will, has made it so that when we sin we can repent and our sins are forgiven and we are absolved of the punishment to the degree we are contrite, and when we have perfect contrition He even elevates our union to a higher state than it was before the sin. That is love; that is mercy, it is true goodness. Our Father, knowing man’s weakness had His only begotten Son pay the price the we His other children could not pay because we are not God and therefore our actions not infinite in merit nor eternal in accomplishment. One of the effects of His death and resurrection is that sin no longer has power over life, and death no longer means the end of life. Life now always has victory over death, “O death where is your sting?” All who are baptized are baptized into the life and death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, so our lives follow this pattern forever more until we share in His perfect happiness in heaven or reach the Era of Peace. Resurrection means new life and a life better than before; it is the creative power of God. Creating means making something out of nothing; how is that different from turning an evil into a good? It isn’t different in nature, so He can allow evil because He knows He can bring good out of the worst evil even if we doubt it since His power and goodness are not dependent on our ability to believe in them.

WHAT IS SUFFERING?

It is now a means to greater union with Him. He told M. Eugenia (God the Father Speaks to His Children) that He comes to us in 3 ways, the Holy Spirit, the Eucharist, and the Cross. Because of the Cross of Jesus, our crosses, our sufferings bring us self-knowledge, and a God whose infinite compassion draws us to Himself, and graces to become more and more the person He made us to be. He knew man would sin so He had a plan to make use of the effects of sin, suffering, to unite us to Himself, give us grace and understanding, in short to bring good out of evil so that sin and death don’t win but have become the precursor to life and freedom and good. Now, even though there are natural consequences to sin, He has overcome them supernaturally by reordering the consequences so that even the worst things in life are mere tools that He uses to bring about a greater good.

In the Old Testament it says the wages of sin is death, but the wages of the death of Jesus Christ is Resurrection from death for all who become children of God through baptism and the fruit of suffering is forever more life-giving freedom for the children of God. In these times, the end times, there has never been a greater need for grace, love, life and goodness, so there has never been a greater need for souls to become little co-redeemers; transformers. “As sin abounds, grace abounds all the more Rom 5:20.” And one of the greatest ways that makes this possible is the offering of our sufferings for the transformation and therefore it is important for Him who loves us, who loves all His creation and wants to save it, to allow as much suffering as He does now, so as to have the greatest chance of saving the most souls and giving them their inheritance of the Era of Peace. Shalom.

A Profound New Understanding of God Our Father's Purpose of Noah's Ark & How it Applies to Us Today

God the Father tells us in dialogue with Barbara Rose Centilli,
(Seeing With the Eyes of the Soul)

As My son Noah and his family were saved in the Ark, so now My children will be saved by being the Ark—the Temple for the Presence of God. As My children of old were housed in My Ark, so now I will be housed in the Ark of their souls— the Temple of My Divine Presence. (December 28, 1997)

Safely tucked within God the Father's Divine Paternal Heart, He enters in ours, through our Consecration and Fiat to Him. In fact those who have embraced this "Final Devotion" (11/27/97) have already experienced it.. A sweet and gentle carrying and kind of immunity through the chaos of this time safely through to the other shores of the Promised Era of Peace, as it were, a foretaste-- in Mary's Immaculate Heart, in Jesus' Sacred Heart and through the Holy Spirit.

March 23, 1997:

Dearest Mother and Father: Please save my family. ... Rescue us. Protect us. Please.

Barbara:

See the Ark. What do you see? A family BUILDING and ENTERING and being CONTAINED in a vessel that protects them from My purifying Wrath. It is a wrath of Justice. And in doing this they separated themselves from their unholy brothers, but took nature with them. They were sealed up and carried in the purifying waters, but not drowned in them. I did not remove them from the earth or the terror or isolation of the experience. But I gave them each other—the family. They were also protectors of My animals. This was their job and responsibility. They and the animals were left in the world, but contained in My protective Ark.

What does this teach you? THIS TEACHES YOU THAT IN THESE TIMES A GREAT PURIFYING FIRE WILL SWEEP ACROSS THIS PLANET, REFINING AND CLEANSING, AND PURIFYING SO THAT ALL THAT IS LEFT IS GOOD AND PURE, TRANSFORMED TO BEGIN ANEW—TO BEGIN AGAIN FOR THE LAST TIME. Bring your family to Me for shelter. Bring them to their Mother. We await them. THE CONSECRATION MUST GO ON THE ARK FOR THE NEW TIME THAT FAST APPROACHES. Take your family into the Ark of My Love.

...A time will come when My Sacraments will be administered by a scant few. The Church will not die. You will be one of them by obedience to the Church. This position will change in times that come. A NEW TIME AND NEW TRADITIONS ARE COMING.

The (My) children must find Me. They must call Me down to earth. They must ask. And I will come. "Rapture" is when My little ones are contained and consumed in My Love so nothing can harm them. In this way, they will be saved. THIS IS THE ARK OF THESE NEW TIMES.
